Orhaniye is effectively split into three: Keçibükü, the houses and restaurants that straggle the road to the sand spit, and the main part of the village that loops around behind the coast.

Orhaniye is a good base to explore the Bozburun peninsula. Turgot is the next small village along the coast. There is a beach and a few restaurants. Selimiye is the next village along the coast on the Bozborun road. This long village is set around a beautiful bay and has a good range of restaurants.

Sogut sprawls down the hillside to a beautiful bay. It is about 3km from the top of the village down to the bay. Bozborun is famous for its boatyard, and is a stop off point for many flotillas. It is a pretty, bustling town. There are several restaurants and shops to serve the sailing community. Bayir is situated high in the hills, and is signposted off the Bozborun road. It is famous for a large tree, that supposedly brings luck if you walk around it three times. Turunç is the nearest main resort. It is an attractive town set on the hillside above a sweeping sand and shingle beach.

The area and nature
